

OLD OAK PARK

A Timeless Piece of Millennial City

Tucked away among the neighborhoods of Millennial City, Old Oak Park is one of the city's oldest and most cherished green spaces. Named after the massive centuries-old oak trees that line its pathways, the park has served as a gathering place for generations of families, friends, and visitors.

Explore the Park

The Grand Oak

Standing at the center of the park is the legendary Grand Oak, a massive tree believed to have stood for hundreds of years. The tree has become a symbol of endurance and growth, with generations of citizens visiting it to celebrate milestones, make memories, and reflect on the city's history.

The Old Oak Pavilion

A classic community gathering space used for outdoor concerts, farmers markets, neighborhood celebrations, and seasonal festivals. Its historic design makes it one of the most popular event locations in the city.

Heritage Walk

A scenic pathway winding through the oldest sections of the park, featuring historic markers, preserved gardens, and monuments honoring important moments in Millennial City's past.

Children's Discovery Grove

A family-friendly area featuring playgrounds, nature trails, educational displays, and interactive activities designed to help young visitors explore the natural world.

The Reflection Gardens

A quiet corner of the park filled with flowers, walking paths, and peaceful seating areas. Many visitors come here to relax, remember loved ones, or enjoy a moment away from the city's busy streets.
